CHRISTY'S PRAIRIE STATE STAKES.

J. W. Schorr's Charley Christy, under Tommy Burns, won the Prairie State Stakes yesterday at Harlem in a gallop from Serena and Moncreith. Serena had beaten Charley Christy time and time again and it looked as though she should do so again. The ring always held her favorite around even money and the public agreed with its natural enemies. Christy opened at 2 to 1, advanced to 3 to 1 and then Brewer Schorr sent in $500 to be bet on him.

Heretofore Christy has generally gone out in front and made the pace, but Burns was given instructions to stay with Serena. This he did to perfection and rounding the home turn the pair were on even terms. Below the eighth pole Serena cracked, and Christy coming on truly won as he pleased by two open lengths. Serena beat Moncreith—who was overweighted—three-quarters of a length for the place.

Out of the first and fifth races came tingling finishes. The first was at a mile. Briggs was the choice at 2 to 1. Hessville, however, got the bulk of the general play. After Loyalotta and Helen H Gardner had raced themselves to exhaustion along came Arrezzo and Hessville, and, after a drive of fierce contention for a full long, Hessville got up just in time to win by an inch or two.

The fifth was a three-quarter dash for two-year-olds. Presbyterian and Official drew the bulk of the public support. Whatever chance Official ever had was ruined right at the start. Just as the barrier arose he was sharply cut off and obliged to pull up. Presbyterian, away in front, led to the stretch turn, where Depending caught him. The pair had a ding-dong finish and Depending won by the mere advantage of striding the luckiest past the post.

Queen Safie and Traverser won their races off by themselves. Traverser's performance was a grand one. He carried 102 pounds and equalled Timemaker's track record with 103 up in 1:19.4. He is a grand colt.

Low Hopper landed the last race in a particularly honest sort of way from Harry McCouch.

NOTES OF THE TURF.

A. S. and others, Milwaukee, Wis.—If, when the bet was made and accepted upon the understanding that Rey Salazar and San Antonio were coupled as the Baldwin entry the fact of Rey Salazar racing in P. Dunne's name cuts no figure in the decision and payment. DAILY RACING FORM erred in coupling the pair in entries. A distinct understanding, however, governs in all betting propositions.

Out of mere appreciation of clever riding DAILY RACING FORM yesterday sent to Master Gray, Tully Coulter's clever light jockey, a bicycle of the 1898 United States model. The present was for his riding of the paper's namesake to victory, when the Burlington—Ella Blackburn colt won his first start last Tuesday, Sept. 28.

Mr. Corrigan is here planning for the departure of his and other horses to California. The idea is to take out a special express train of ten cars to the coast.

Winner—Ch. g, 3, by Jack Hardy—Annie Wheaton. Post 2 minutes. Start good. Won in a long, hard drive of two; third and fourth doing their best. Hessville ran right to the mark. He is a consistent little horse. Arrezzo improved considerably since his last start and ran a cracking good race. He was a trifle short, though, and weakened in the final pinch. The race should be beneficial to him. Loyalotta and Helen H Gardner raced each other into the ground the first three-quarters. Off in the first division, Martin K would have been a keen contender. He made up a lot of ground the last three furlongs. Briggs was poorly handled. He was pocketed several times and obliged to go around the field. Throw his race out.

Scratched—Dejure, 105; Little Music, 99; Onalaska, 108.

Overweights—Golden Rod, 24 pounds.

Winner—Br. f, 3, by Buckmaster—Queen Bess. Post 2 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second, third and fourth driving hard. Queen Safie was the best. She galloped in behind Travis and Preston to the stretch turn and then passed them as though they were tied. There Morgan on Travis cut off Preston and impeded him. Wordsman is an honest little horse. About 1:42 is his notch and he always runs to it. Travis did well. He too, is a consistent performer. Preston dislikes a mile. His race was bad all through today. Throw it out. Woods punished Rudolph the last half mile. Lady Inez seemed to sulk all the way.

1943 THIRD RACE—6 1-2 Furlongs. Purse $400. All Ages. Handicap.

*Coupled in the betting. Time, 2:31, 3:51, 4:21, 1:00, 1:13, 1:19.

Winner—Ch. c, 2, by Rossington—Betsy Broeck. Off first break. Start good. Won easily; second, third and fourth driving hard. Traverser had a world of speed. He spreadeagled his field and showed a great improvement over his last race. Lady Callahan too, ran an improved race. Forseen finished fast. She would have been second in another stride. Libertine was sharply cut off shortly after the start. He showed little speed, though, and could not have been third with clear sailing. Plantain used what speed he had early. He was stopping badly on the end. Irene Woods ran a fair race. It will do her good. Scratched—Official, 91.

Overweights—Irene Woods, 3 pounds; Traverser, 4.

1944 FOURTH RACE—1 1-8 Miles. 3-year-olds and upward. Selling.

Time, 2:26, 3:52, 1:17, 1:30, 1:43, 1:55.

Winner—B. g, 3, by Woodlands—Julia W. Off first break to a perfect start. Won easily; second driving; third cleverly; fourth pulled up. Burns rode a beautiful race on Christy. He placed him nicely the first part of it and made his run at the right time. Christy turned the tables on Serena and gave the form players an awful jolt. Moncreith ran well for a mile. He was giving away too much weight. Protus had a lot of speed and pulled up sound. He is a useful selling piate. He tried to run out in the stretch.

1945 FIFTH RACE—3-4 Mile. Purse $400. 2-year-olds. Allowances.

Time, 2:41, 3:41, 4:21, 1:01, 1:14.

Winner—B. c, by Deceiver—Devonia. Post 30 seconds. Start good. The first two were driving the entire length of the stretch. Depending showed to be an extremely game colt. Nostrand rode a clever finish on him, too. He pulled in close to Presbyterian at the eighth pole making it impossible for Murphy to use his whip with his right hand. Presbyterian was perhaps the best. Official is unlucky. He broke well on his stride but could not get through and had to be pulled up. After that Gray never drove him hard. Sacket seems to be nowhere near himself. His recent illness seems to have left him in bad condition.

Scratched—Traverser, 118; Judge Wardell, 107.

Overweights—Presbyterian, 2 pounds.

Winner—Ch. c, 4, by Punster—Spray.

Post 12 minutes. Start good. Won cleverly on the end after an early drive; second, third and fourth under keen pressure. Lew Hopper was the best. He raced Trilby into the ground and then came on like a gentleman. It looked half way down the stretch as though McCouch would beat him, but the latter weakened in the final pinch. Harry McCouch was much used at the post. So was Trilby. Watch The Tory. He finished like a lion and acts as if he might be a good selling plater. Glenmoyne seemed to prep though the stretch. He is a bad horse these days. Necedah, well played, ran a bad race.

Scratched—Forfeit, 103; Tony Honing, 106.

Overweights—The Tory, 3 pounds.
